The Revd Canon Sally Lodge Rector

Dear Friends,

The Christmas decorations are back in their boxes and even the wise men have been put away for another year. The Christmas season comes to an end with Candlemas on 2nd February as we turn our attention towards Ash Wednesday and Lent. But I still have a background noise of carols playing in my head, their words and familiar tunes have not yet faded away completely. One carol which seems stuck on a permanent loop is O Little Town of Bethlehem and in particular the final line of the first verse “The hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight”.

February 2026

the Church of England in Central Windsor

The carol was written in 1868 by the Reverend Phillips Brooks (who later became Bishop of Massachusetts). Unlike many other Christmas carols which emphasize the glory of God as seen in the grand chorus of angels, Brooks focuses on the quietness of Christ’s birth, and how little the larger world paid attention. He had visited Bethlehem at Christmas time a couple of years before he wrote his carol and had seen Bethlehem and its surrounding countryside on Christmas Eve: “O little town of Bethlehem how still we see thee lie”. In 1865, the American Civil War had ended and President Lincoln had been assassinated; in 1868, themes of peace and quiet would probably have been very welcome to Brooks’ fellow Americans. They are similarly welcome it seems to me now in a world which feels so full of chaos, unpredictability and despair.

“The hopes and fears of all the years” speaks of hopes and fears of all time. Those experienced by the Israelites in the long years of exile and those expressed by the prophets of old, tied up with those experienced here and now, and those which will be experienced in the future. All are bound up in the coming of Christ. All are “met in him” because he is God with us. In the words of the Letter to the Hebrews, Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever, a source of constant hope and comfort in a world of change, across all time.

This is reflected in the final verse of the carol which is a prayer for Christ to come and be present with us.

A graphic for Ash Wednesday. It features a large, stylized purple cross with a textured, brush-stroke appearance. The text "Ash Wednesday" is written in a purple, cursive, handwritten-style font. Below that, the date "18 February" is written in a smaller, pink, cursive font. At the bottom, the times and locations for the services are listed: "11am Holy Communion (BCP) with ashing Holy Trinity Church Claremont Road &amp; Trinity Place" and "7.30pm Sung Eucharist with ashing All Saints' Church Frances Road". A large, stylized purple "A" is at the bottom right. The entire graphic is enclosed in a rounded rectangular border.

O holy Child of Bethlehem, descend to us, we pray;
cast out our sin and enter in;
be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels,
the great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us,
our Lord Emmanuel!

This is not just for Christmas. It is for the whole year, for all time, for always.

May the joy of the angels, the eagerness of the shepherds, the perseverance of the wisemen, the love of Mary and Joseph, and the peace of the Christ-child be yours now and for evermore.

Katy Kerr as usual prepared our candle stand for our traditional Advent Service. Members took part in the Service lighting the candles and reminding us of their significance. The Service ended with members reading their favourite Christmas verses, secular and religious, starting as usual with Jill Church 's rendering of 'Twas The Night before Christmas'. We also enjoyed hearing 8 year old Henry's beautiful voice. We then enjoyed a happy festive tea and chat!

Members were delighted to help with this year's Christingle Service. We helped Jane Burr and Katy prepare the Christingles and on Christmas Eve assisted Revd Sally with the Service. The packed Church and delighted children ensured us all feeling the true, joyful message of Christmas. Anne Casson encouraged us at our January Meeting to meet the New Year boldly and prayerfully with her interesting talk, "New Year....New Ways of Praying". She reminded us of the influence of Ignatius Loyola and her previous talk on his inspiration. Our next meeting is on 12th February at 3.30 at All Saints Hall when Mike Bailey will speak on 'Research Finding Windsor's Oldest Grave'. Sounds intriguing! You are all welcome to come along to find the answer!...and enjoy tea and good company after.

In the words of John Wesley

Do all the good you can, by all the means you can
in all the ways you can,
in all the places you can to all the people you can,
for as long as you can

Ash Wednesday 18th February

Ash Wednesday, like Maundy Thursday and Good Friday, is a Principal Holy Day which means its place in the church calendar is as important as Christmas Day and Easter Day. Under Church Law, Holy Communion must be celebrated in every parish or benefice and, as such, it is a day when traditionally all Christians are expected to attend church.

Ash Wednesday marks the start of Lent which for centuries has been a time of self-examination, penitence, self-denial and preparation in readiness for the great festival of Easter. The 40 days of Lent reminds us of the 40 days which Jesus spent in the wilderness before he took up his public ministry.

Church services on Ash Wednesday often include the ancient practice of the imposition of ashes. Ash has been a sign of penitence since the Middle Ages when it became customary to begin Lent by being marked in ash with the sign of the cross, signifying Christ's victory over sin and death. The practice of "ashing" has in recent years seen something of a revival and often attracts the attention of the press with photographs of "ashing" in shopping centres and at railway stations.

Attending church on Ash Wednesday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect, repent and prepare. We all need time out of our hectic lives to listen to God and to think about the way in which we live personally, in community and globally.

Whether you are an Ash Wednesday regular, whether you have in the past attended on Ash Wednesday but have fallen out of the habit or whether you have never attended an Ash Wednesday service, you are very welcome to come along this year.

Our two Ash Wednesday services are at Holy Trinity Church at 11am and All Saints at 7.30pm. The service at 11am will last about 30 minutes and the service at 7.30pm will be about an hour. Both services will include the optional extra of "ashing".

Please do be in touch if you would like any further information.

Little People, Big Faith

A view from the children's corner

Austin was interviewed by his mum about last year's Holiday Club, which ran for a few fun-filled days and was led by Fr Richard and church volunteers. Here's what he had to say:

When asked what he remembered most about Holiday Club, Austin didn't hesitate.

"It was fun," he said. "We learnt stories about Jesus, did activities in a book, and ate snacks together. I liked helping Daddy and being with my friends and my brother."

Would he recommend the club to his friends?

"Yes," Austin replied confidently, "because it was so fun."

But even great days have their moments...

"My least favourite part was when we had to pretend to surf while watching a video of someone surfing," he explained. "Daddy made a really excited noise!"

Was that embarrassing?
"Oh yes, it was!"

Daddy would say it's his job to embarrass his children.

"Well," Austin confirmed, "he did!"

Holiday Club will be running again Monday 16th - Wednesday 18th February from 9:30am-12:30pm during half term. If you have children who enjoy stories, activities, snacks, and plenty of fun (with minimal surfing!), we'd love to see them there.

Thank you to Austin and his family. Please see the next page for details of how to book for this year's club.

Introducing Dame Sarah Mullally - the 106th Archbishop of Canterbury

The Rt Revd and Rt Hon Dame Sarah Mullally DBE officially became Archbishop of Canterbury on 28th January 2026, when she was legally confirmed at St Paul's Cathedral.

Most people know that she had been Bishop of London for several years, and that she is the first woman to ever become Archbishop of Canterbury. But what else do you know about her?

1. She was born in Woking in 1962, and is one of four children, with two sisters and one brother.
2. She attended Winston Churchill Comprehensive School and Woking Sixth Form College. She went on to South Bank Polytechnic and Heythrop College, University of London.
3. She worked as a nurse in the National Health Service, which she has described as "an opportunity to reflect the love of God". She specialised as a cancer nurse and became a ward sister at Westminster Hospital, before being made Director of Nursing at Chelsea and Westminster Hospital.
4. In 1999, at the age of 37, she was appointed the Government's Chief Nursing Officer for England in the Department of Health. She was the youngest person ever to be appointed to the post. Bishop Sarah was made a Dame Commander of the British Empire in 2005 in recognition of her outstanding contribution to nursing.
5. She had become a Christian at the age of 16. While working as the Chief Nursing Officer for England, she discerned a call to ordination and entered training ministry at the South East Institute for Theological Education.
6. She was ordained in 2001 and served her curacy in St Saviour's Battersea Fields, initially as a self-supporting minister, before leaving her government post in 2004, which she has described at the time as "the biggest decision I have ever made".
7. In 2012 she was installed as Canon Treasurer at Salisbury Cathedral and three years later took the role as Suffragan Bishop of Crediton in the Diocese of Exeter, the fourth woman to become a Bishop in the Church of England.

8. On 12th May 2018, Bishop Sarah was installed as the 133rd Bishop of London at St Paul's Cathedral, the first woman to hold the role.
9. Bishop Sarah sits in the House of Lords as one of the Lords Spiritual, having been introduced on 24th May 2018. Her maiden speech paid tribute to the NHS on its 70th anniversary, telling the Lords: "I am the Bishop I am today because of that first vocation to nursing, and compassion and healing are constants at the heart of who I am."
10. She was sworn in as a member of the Privy Council in March 2018 and became Dean of Her Majesty's Chapels Royal in July 2019.
11. As Bishop of London, she led the Church of England's Living in Love and Faith process from 2020 to 2023. This included the formative stages of discernment and decision making which saw the introduction of the Prayers of Love and Faith for same-sex couples.
12. She has served on the Church's National Safeguarding Steering Group and is also Lead Bishop for Health and Social Care issues.
13. As a Lord Spiritual, she has drawn from both her pastoral experience and her background in nursing and healthcare and has played a key role in the ongoing debates on assisted dying.
14. This year, she chaired the Triennium Funding Working Group that developed the Church of England's three-year spending plan that led to significant investments in local churches and parish clergy.
15. Archbishop Sarah is married to Eamonn, an Irish-born IT and Enterprise Architect who enjoys beekeeping and volunteering as a London tourist guide.
16. The couple have two grown-up children, Liam and Grace.
17. Archbishop Sarah has continued her interest in the health service having been a non-executive director at the Royal Marsden NHS Foundation Trust then at Salisbury NHS Foundation Hospital.
18. She is Chair of Christian Aid.
19. She has spoken openly about her dyslexia, describing her difficulties with writing and reading.
20. In her spare time, she loves cooking, walking and pottery.

The Presentation of Christ in the Temple

Candlemas, 2nd February, comes exactly 40 days after Christmas. In New Testament times 40 days old was an important age for a baby boy: it was when they made their first 'public appearance'. Mary, like all good Jewish mothers, went to the Temple with Jesus, her first male child - to 'present Him to the Lord'. Thus, we have the Festival of the Presentation of Christ in the Temple (Luke 2: 22-40). So where does the Candlemas bit come in? Jesus is described in the New Testament as the Light of the World, and early Christians developed the tradition of lighting many candles in celebration of this day.

Praying for the New Bishop of Oxford

We are asked to pray for: all those involved in the appointment of the next Bishop of Oxford; for Bishop Steven and his family as he gets ready for retirement; for Bishop Gavin and his family as he prepares to cover the vacancy; and for the person who will be called to the role. To the right is a prayer for the Vacancy (the Prayer subgroup of the Vacancy in See Committee will be producing prayers for each phase of the process).

Almighty God, giver of every good gift:
Look graciously on your Church and illuminate our path
as we seek a new Bishop.

Help us to work together for the good of your kingdom and all who live, work and study in the Diocese of Oxford.

Give wisdom and listening hearts
to those who have influence.

Send out your Holy Spirit to call one who will faithfully teach, pastor, care for and equip us;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Pause for a Poem

The stormy, wintery weather earlier in January prompted me to look for a poem about snow. Over the years I have featured several by different writers, but this time I have found one new to me by the American poet, Ralph Waldo Emerson. As it describes a snowstorm it seemed particularly appropriate given that the much of the north of the country have experienced snowstorms that in Emerson's words hid "hills and woods, the river, and the heaven".

Michael Bailey

The Snowstorm

Announced by all the trumpets of the sky,
Arrives the snow, and, driving o'er the fields,
Seems nowhere to alight: the whited air
Hides hills and woods, the river, and the heaven,
And veils the farmhouse at the garden's end.
The sled and traveller stopped, the courier's feet
Delayed, all friends shut out, the housemates sit Around the radiant fireplace, enclosed
In a tumultuous privacy of storm.

Come see the north wind's masonry.
Out of an unseen quarry evermore
Furnished with tile, the fierce artificer
Curves his white bastions with projected roof
Round every windward stake, or tree, or door.
Speeding, the myriad-handed, his wild work
So fanciful, so savage, nought cares he
For number or proportion. Mockingly,
On coop or kennel he hangs Parian wreaths;
A swan-like form invests the hidden thorn;
Fills up the farmer's lane from wall to wall,
Maugre the farmer's sighs; and, at the gate,
A tapering turret overtops the work.
And when his hours are numbered, and the world
Is all his own, retiring, as he were not,
Leaves, when the sun appears, astonished Art
To mimic in slow structures, stone by stone,
Built in an age, the mad wind's night-work,
The frolic architecture of the snow.

Ralph Waldo Emerson 1803 – 1882

Thank you to Michael for the photograph, as well as the poem, of this wonderful snowy scene, which he took when he was visiting his sister in America.

The funeral of Queen Victoria

125 years ago, on 2nd February 1901, the funeral of Queen Victoria took place.

She had died at the age of 81 on 22 January, having ruled for nearly 64 years, and her death took her family, courtiers and subjects by surprise in difficult times. The Boer war was still in progress, and the previous year the Prince of Wales had been shot at in Belgium, by a boy who was protesting against the war.

Her third adult child – Alfred, Duke of Edinburgh – had just died, another was near death, and she herself had been confined to a wheelchair, almost blind and often confused. She died at the remote Osborne House on the Isle of Wight, and when it happened there was no-one alive who could remember how to bury a monarch.

Victoria had asked for a full military state funeral, and there were secret instructions concerning mementoes of her personal servant, John Brown. The official service in St George's Chapel was chaotic because of timing errors, but it was followed by an emotional ceremony for the family on 4th February, in the mausoleum the queen had built for her husband at Frogmore, adjoining Windsor Castle, where the Queen was laid to rest beside her much-loved Prince Albert.

The total cost was £35,500 (£4.5 million). Victoria had outlived all the members of her Privy Council alive in 1837; all the members who had sat in the House of Commons at that time; and all nine of her bridesmaids.

What has been described as the godly domesticity of the Victorian era appealed to a mainly Protestant public, centring more on morals than on radical evangelicalism and effective prayer. One historian noted the transformation in the general British attitude from "aggressive, brutal, rowdy, outspoken, riotous, cruel and bloodthirsty" to "inhibited, polite, orderly, tender-minded, prudish and hypocritical".

Jubilate!

Our Choir had a packed schedule in December but, fortunately, did find time to celebrate with a Christmas Lunch in the Palmer Arms in Dorney. Thank you to the choir, John Halsey (Director of Music) and Nathaniel Keiller (organist) and friends for all they do to enrich our worship.

If you're aged 7+ and might like to join the choir, please do have a chat with John or one of the clergy.

Annual Parochial Church Meeting

The Annual Meeting (at which wardens are elected) and Annual Parochial Church Meeting (at which reports on the fabric and finances of the parish are received and PCC members elected) are on 26 April this year, after the Sung Eucharist at St Stephen & St Agnes Church. Please make a note in your diary and, if you're not already on the electoral roll, please consider joining by asking for a form when you're next in church. If you're considering serving as warden or PCC member, you can find out more by having a chat with Revd Sally or Fr Richard.

New Bishop of Oxford

Following the recent announcement of Bishop Steven's retirement, the Diocese has begun the process of seeking his successor. Everyone is encouraged to complete a short, anonymous survey which has been designed to gather the views and opinions of people living in the Diocese of Oxford. The survey will take less than ten minutes to complete and is available until 4th February. Every voice matters so please do complete it. You can complete it here. Thank you
